Dear Steve:

I sent the letter to Tamara Lee and cross-copied to you 12 days ago. I received a call from Mr. Lee, who said it's Tamara's problem. He advised that Tamara does not want you to have any contact with your children, but that he doesn't want to get involved. As the letter advised, it is time to proceed with the Motion for Modification of Parenting Time.

If you want me to proceed with the work, I'll need that $1000 retainer. Your facsimile of March 2, 2004, requested that I "void" any "quasi-legal restraints upon access to my children." I cannot bill the time to the Alternative Defense Counsel. I know no one likes to pay a retainer, but I have learned that it is not a good idea to enter my appearance without one. Perhaps Frank Pugliese will advance you the funds, or Chas, or . . . ?

I also received the enclosed correspondence from Marlene. Give me a call. I think we need to obtain certified copies of your case records from Arapahoe County, and probably prepare a 35(c) now.

Yours truly,
